High Court Order On

Renewal of Registration

Order on

Civil Misc Application No. 99565 of 2007 In

Contempt Petion No. 820 of 2002

Rajesh Kumar Srivastava Vs Sri A.P. Verma

Hon. Sunil Ambwani J.

Heard Sri Arvind Srivastava for the applicatant. The intervener application is allowed.

The applicant Dr. Alka Jain is M.D. (Gynecology) 1983 and is enrolled with Medical Council of UP at Lucknow at Sl. No. 52605. She is running a 'Maternity Home Medical Clinic' at C-56, Balrampur Nagar, Loni, Ghaziabad. She got her registration in the year 2004 with Chief Medical Officer, Ghaziabad at Sl. No. GDB/00996. It appears that she did not apply for renewal on her registration for the year ending 30.5.2006 (the extended date). The Chief Medical Officer, Ghaziabad has asked to furnish the entire details for renewal of the registration in the current year failing which legal steps will be taken back against her.

It is brought to the notice of the court that in many districts renewal of registration of qualified and authorised medical practitioners is causing some administrative difficulties. It is reported that the Chief Medical Officers are requesting the authorised medical practitioners to complete the entire formalities including the submission of affidavits a fresh as if new registration is required.

The pentioner's application for renewal of registration is allowed with direction to all the Chief Medical Officers in the State that whenever the qualified and registered medical practitioners apply for renewal of their registration they will not be required to undergo the entire formalities unless there is a change in then qualification, place or work, staff or they have added some new facilities in their clinics, nursing homes and hospitals. They will be liable to make a simple application to the Chief Medical Officer of the concerned district along with Xerox copy of the previous years registration and a declaration on the application that they have not added any new medical facility or engaged new personne. Such a declaration will be treated to be sufficient subject to inspections and verfications by the Chief Medical Officer or Medical Officer authorised by him.

Let a copy of this order be sent to the Director General, Medical Health, UP, Lucknow to circulate to all the Chief Medical Officers of the District within a week. He shall make an advertisement for all the medical practitioner to get themselves register with Chief Medical Officers by 30.04.2007 clarifying that in case of renewal of registrations they may make a simple application with the declaration as above, along with a copy of the previous year's registration.

A copy of this order may be given to Sri J.K. Tiwari learned Standing Counsel for compliance.
